In the original publication of this article (Li 2019), there is an error in the last paragraph of the “Precarious work and labor market segmentation” section. The country name Switzerland in the sentence “Finally, Mansson and Ottosson’s (2011) research in Switzerland also rejects the ‘bridge’ argument, as they find the chance of a part-time worker finding a full-time job to be low.” should be changed to Sweden.
